Favoring Letters

In Scrabble “e”
is the most versatile.
I dislike getting “q” or “c”,
but any long-lettered word makes me smile.

When typing, “e”
is rubbed off most by use.
I have red sticker on “e” key,
“a”, “s”, “n” and “c” also get abuse.

When texting all
letters hit by mistake.
Fingers fumble on keys so small.
Misunderstood, I get and give headache.

When Writing I
take all to create words.
All the letters creatively
glom ideas together into curds.

When thinking, how
do letters get to page,
get organized and then somehow express what’s sensed—foolish, clever or sage.
