Angelic Intervention

He's
in kitchen
swearing at a humongous fly
that has been bugging him for days.

She
does not like to bother
angels for small things.
Clipping wings not angel duty?

She's
in other
room reading,
hears him cursing fly,
signals her angels to help him.

Can
you
rely on angels
for such deeds if they have more important things to do?

The
fly
circles
her head as he chases his prey.
He swats fly on nearby window.

She
is
angel trainee. She is learning to ask for help and protection for all.

What
if
she did not call for
angels to help him?
Buzzing fly would outrage him more?

She
does
not know
all the rules.
She is still learning.
She's still in Angel 101.

Fib Sequence: Like a series there are several Fibs together. A sequence can be used to tell a story. Syllable Count: 1-1-2-3-5-8 each stanza. They can be centered or flush left.
