

Kyrielle Sonnet

23rd Annual Mudslinger Race
21.8 mile Bike Race Through Oregon Forest

- A Mountain bikers are everywhere.
a Go flat out, no warm-ups out there.
b Push themselves, riding trails higher,
B slogging mud, but race was drier.
- c Douglas firs, ferns and moss surround.
c Lots of wood mud still can be found.
b 300 bikers, on fire--
B slogging mud, but race was drier.
- d They love ride, camaraderie
d freedom, no cars, speed, scenery, b breathing fresh air. Heart's desire--
B slogging mud, but race was drier.
- A Mountain bikers are everywhere,
B slogging mud, but race was drier.

Kyrielle Sonnet: Contemporary form of sonnet created by union of Sonnet and Kyrielle. Syllable Count: 8 per line. Three quatrains and a couplet.

Rhyme Scheme: A-a-b-B c-c-b-B d-d-b-B A-B

Variation could be the couplet in e-e.