

Roundelay

Organic Chocolate-Powered Zoo Bergl, Austria

- a Only sustainable farming methods will do.
 - b Livestock in Earth Buildings-a fauna covered ark.
 - a Mobile chicken house called Mobile Egg moves to
 - b fertilize pastures. solar panels, an energy spark.
 - A1 Joseph Zoller runs The Edible Zoo
 - B1 an energy-efficient animal park.
-
- a The chocolate factory uses biomass heat too.
 - b Photovoltaic system helps pump to embark
 - a geothermal pipes--two-thirds energy free through
 - b responsible, sustainable, respectful place to disembark--
 - B1 an energy-efficient animal park
 - A1 Joseph Zoller runs The Edible Zoo
-
- a Think of the theme parks near you.
 - b All the energy used to keep away the dark.
 - a Think on the mission, the hullabaloo.
 - b Perhaps a new place to disembark--
 - A1 Joseph Zoller runs The Edible Zoo
 - B1 an energy-efficient animal park.

Roundelay: A lyric with refrain. Can be any meter and probably any syllable count. Some are very complex like John Dryden's 24 line poem with multiple refrains. His had two rhymes, sestets with most of the lines as refrains. Perhaps we can play with our own versions.