I Have A Dream

I have a dream
my grandchildren hold hands and dance in a ring.

In the dream I seem to smile and understand the dance of life they bring.

In my dream-beam
circled in a rainbow band I hear the children sing.

I have a dream
I hold their precious hands joyously in our ring.

In the dream I seem
to laugh and understand the happiness they bring.

My dream-beam shines on our merry band as we serendipidously sing.

I have a dream
my grandchildren' out-stretched hands reach for their own ring.

In the dream I seem to hope and understand what their dreams might bring.

From my dream-beam
on my love-band
they can hear my heart-melodies sing.
