The Deluge of Plastic

You have to pick places you don't walk away from. Joan Didion

- a Our world is drowning in plastic pollution.
- x The Great Pacific Garbage Patch is vast
- a filling with bits and chunks with no solution.
- b Plastic flows into oceans, rivers and lakes.

- x Consumers must become aware.
- a Bag bans could add to some dilution.
- a Towns are passing ban resolutions
- c We must recycle and re-use.

- a New habits need execution
- x to protect our water resources.
- b We must do what it takes.
- c We should tax those who refuse.

- a We can make this evolution
- x toward a sustainable planet.
- a We can get over the delusion
- b we get endless re-takes.

- a We need an attitude revolution.
- b to correct our plastic mistakes.
