

Collaborative Couplets

Gleanings

Under aqua skies and gentle breeze
daffodils dream tumultuous bumble bees.

Clouds darken sun before spritely storm
fading shadows hide the retreating worm.

Twenty merry gnomes conceal their gold retreat underground from gathering cold.

Remembering the puddles and the chill
they join winged ones under fairy hill.

My writing tends to spin rosy tales,
lets imagination color details.

Collaborative Couplets:

1. Several poets contribute words to compose rhymed couplet or any other form the each poet decides
2. Words can be used in any order. Can rhyme or not. Be free verse.
3. This example is rhymed couplets.
4. Words in bold are from the collaborative words.
5. Poets write words separately then all the group hears the words they will work with.
