

Compound Word Poem

Qualities of Light

- a A warm, welcoming winter glow a radiating in front window-- x candlelight
- b Gazing into the vast night sky
b blazing beacons have me ask why x in starlight
- c Lunatics and lovers they say c behave in unusual way
x in moonlight
- d Dimming of the daylight begins
d daily the dark evening wins x at twilight
- e We start tasks, dampened mood erased, e energized, when gray clouds get chased x by sunlight

Compound Word Poem:

Created by Margaret R. Smith

1. 15 lines in five tercets.
2. Syllable Count: 8-8-3
3. Rhyme Scheme: a-a-x b-b-x c-c-x d-d-x e-e-x X=unrhymed.
4. Each tercet ends with a compound of the stem word in the title.