

Fib Octave

Side-lined

When a girl I watched boys play sports. Few teams for girls.
So I became a cheerleader.
But
when alone
at home hoop
I was a good shot.
What I got was ballroom lessons.
I
Danced
ballet and tap but wanted gymnastics
but my mother never did drive.
When
in college,
Modern Dance
taught by New York pros.
Now I can dance water ai chi.
When
a mother
chasing tots,
hiking...then they play
on several teams and I watch.
Now
I
am old.
Grandchildren
play on teams.
I watch and do water exercise.
I
am
side-lined.
Aerobic
dance on land stopped by my bone on bone arthritic knees.

Though
I'm
side-lined
I can dream
I play and dance on Dancing with the Stars with Derek.
