

Ghazanelle

Cooperative Scrabble

- A We love to play cooperative Scrabble--
B four corners, use all tiles and keep no score.
- a Stuck we open word-finder. We babble
A We love to play cooperative Scrabble.
- b On Super Scrabble board nine tiles explore
B four corners, use all tiles and keep no score.
- a We point spots we want to go. We gabble
A We love to play cooperative Scrabble.
- b We place words so other players reach for
B four corners, use all tiles and keep no score.
- a We transcend seven-tile Scrabble rabble.
A We love to play cooperative Scrabble.
- B Four corners, use all tiles and keep no score
A We love to play cooperative Scrabble

Ghazanelle:

Originated in the 17th century as correspondence between a Persian silk merchant in Tehran and a French courtesan in Aix.

1. 14 lines. Couplets.
2. Originally hendecasyllabic. Now 10 syllable lines.
3. Two rhymes. Capital A and B are the repeat lines.
4. Pattern: A-B a-A b-B a-A b-B a-A B-A