

Lannet

Prayer Request

Another e-mail asking for prayers.
A beloved partner faces surgery.
After years of his maladies she asks
God, when is enough--enough to suffer.
In elder years this is a common plea.
You watch and listen helpless, only hope for a healing, a cure, good hospice care.
Operation system on this planet
is still filled with mystery, tragedies
we do not understand. Fear and pain thrive.
We dream of living elsewhere, clarity and peace prevails. Here we battle alone.
But with light and support we can prevail.
We can only offer love and kindness.

Lannet:

Created by Laura LaMarca

1. Sonnet form of 14 lines.
2. Syllable Count: 10 syllables per line.
3. No end rhyme scheme.
4. Only internal rhyme allowed.