Growing Un-Employment

Witches now are very annoyed.
They have joined the under-employed.
Halloween is over this year
so covens are brewing in fear.
There is nowhere to be deployed.

Ghosts, ghouls and goblins head for mall
where trick or treaters get their haul.
Warlocks, witches blend in the crowd
Must have candy, crying out loud before lights out can cast a pall.

What will all these entities do when these festivities are through?
How will they eat? Where is the fun
when all the goodie greed is done?
And will you be unemployed too?
