

Rimas Dissolutus

Everything in its Place

- 6a Personal items place
6b in same spot. Shopping bag
6c returns to the same chair.
- 6a Each object has its space.
6b Some even have a tag.
6c But will it get to there?
- 6a Sometimes in the rat race
6b system hits a big snag.
6c know thing goes somewhere.
- 6a My nerves need to embrace.
6b I am wrung out dish rag.
6c Just plop it. I don't care.
- 6a Then partner in my face,
6b annoyed, begins to nag
6c about places we share.
- 6a As the demands outpace
6b ability to snag
6c object somewhere out there
- 6a I'm denied a true base,
6a. a chance to lollygag
6c I am really aware.

Rimas Dissolutus:

1. French form.
2. Rhymes do not rhyme within the stanza but the same lines rhyme in following stanzas.
3. The stanzas can have any number of lines.
4. Poet chooses one length of syllable count.